AUBURN BARRACKS BURNED

HIGH REQUIEM MASS FOR DR. MURRAY IS SAID THIS MORNING IN ST. ANN'S CHURCH

Hundreds Throng Church and Street to Pay Their Last Respects

MIGHTY FLORAL TRIBUTE
PAID LATE PHYSICIAN

Stores Closed and Many Organizations Attend Funeral In Body

High requiem mass was said for the repose of the soul of the late Dr. M.
W. Murray at St. Anne's Catholic church this morning by Rev. Joseph M. Sheridan, pastor of St. Ann's who had just arrived from a long visit to his old home in Ireland, with the assistance of Father Isidore, of Cullman.

The St. Ann's choir opened the services by singing "Lead Kindly Light" followed with the funeral march played by Miss Anna Cliff as the pallbearers marched into the church bearing the mortal remains of the man, who in life had filled a large measure of service in this county and who numbered his friends by the thousands.

With close to five hundred seated, and as many standing in the aisles, the church presented a solemn, silent, reverent scene, throughout the highly impressive services that lasted something over an hour.

Along the sidewalks outside there were long lines of silent waiting people, who although unable to gain admittance to the church, remained throughout the services as a last tribute of respect to their departed friend who had stood by them so loyally during evil and good report, and in sickness or in health through all the years since he came to this community in 1890.

An earnest of what a mighty tribute of love told with flowers was later to be placed on the grave of the deceased, was in evidence in the many automobiles that stood waiting to bear sorrowing relatives, friends and neighbors to the city cemetery as soon as the funeral was over. Perhaps there was never a greater floral tribute to a citizen of the Twin Cities.

Father Sheridan, assisted by Father Isidore, said the funeral rites in the Latin language, and prayed the prayers in that tongue; but his sermon was delivered in the English language, and it was listened to carefully by the waiting audience.

"It is appointed to man once to die," were the first words of the speaker.
And then a number of the Master's parables, having reference to the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death were recited. The question was raised as to how men and women can lead lives acceptable to God, and it was answered by a direction that all obey God's commands. The speaker quoted the two great commands on which hang all the law and the prophets, namely that we love our neighbors as our selves, and God supreme-ly.

The speaker said that his church forbade its priests to pronounce eulogies, and the audience was reminded that what men said of each other did not change anything anyway.

It was declared that "charity" was the chief virtue, and included them all and the suggestion was made that the late Dr. Murray, was known first of all for his charity and love for his fellow creatures.

Near the close Father Sheridan stated that there was, now, no service we could render the deceased, unless to remember him in our prayers and to follow the same path of service to humanity, that he had followed while in life.

Immediate relatives of Dr. Murray, sat well forward in the church, which number included John Murray, a brother, who had come from his home in Dublin, Canada, to attend the funeral.

Members of the several societies of which Dr. Murray was a member sat immediately behind the relatives, and their number was so large as to almost fill the entire lower floor of the church. As Father Sheridan completed his sermon, the choir led the well known hymn—"Nearer My God to Thee," in which some of the audience almost unconsciously joined.

Then the active pallbearers lifted the casket, and as they marched out were followed, first by the relatives and then by the general public and all were in tears from the altar step to the choir gallery.

At a little past eleven, one of the longest funeral processions ever to pass through the streets of Albany and Decatur, went on its solemn way to the city cemetery, where following the final religious rites, the body of a Prince that has fallen in Israel was placed in its narrow grave there to await the resurrection call.

Candler Faced Insanity Case Beauty States

Mrs. Onezima de Bouchelle & Asa G. Candler.

Beautiful Mrs. Onezima de Bouchelle, of New Orleans, whose engagement to marry Asa G. Candler, Coca Cola King, of Atlanta, Ga., and probably the outh's richest man, has been broken by the latter, has issued a remarkable statement, demanding that Candler name the two men who accused her. He has steadfastly declined to do so.

(By International News Service)

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 14.—Members of the family of Asa G. Candler, the Atlanta soft drink king, who recently broke off his engagement to Onezima de Bouchelle, the New Orleans beauty, had threatened to have the aged financier confined in an institution for the insane, according to statements made here today by Mrs. de Bouchelle.

That, she declared, is the secret whispered to her by Candler just before they parted for the last time and which he warned her not to repeat and that is the reason, she added, that her aged fiance threw up his hands in despair and accepted the command of members of his family that he abandon his intention of winning her.

It was learned here today that a man, alleged to have been a private detective in the employ of the Candlers, was found yesterday afternoon in the office of Harry Gamble, rifling the attorney's desk.

with Gamble in the conduct of Mrs.

ASPHALT COAT IS PLACED ON HIGHWAY

Project J of the Morgan County new road program has received a mile of asphalt finisher coat, according to Engineer M. S. Bingham. This project is the so-called Hartselle-ing of asphalt will begin on Hart-

According to Mr. Busby of the are being laid on the Hartselle to where such rapid progress was noted one month ago.

EXPLOSION PROBED BY THE MILITARY

(Associated Press.)
BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 14.—State military authorities are conducting a rigid inquiry into the dynamiting of the home of H. L. Green, car repairer of the Louisville & Nashville railroad company at Boyles last night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Green were severely bruised by concussions which tore away the front part of the home.
H. L. Green told officers he was among the striking shopmen who went out on July 1, but had returned to work three days ago. The authorities believe the bomb was tossed under the house from an automobile.

BRITISH POLICY IN NEAR EAST SAVED WORLD FROM WAR GEORGE DECLARES

Political Speech Of Supreme Importance Delivered by the English Premier

2,000,000 SLAUGHTERED
BY TURKISH SOLDIERS

Startling Revelation Of Conditions Made In His Manchester Address

(By International News Service)

MANCHESTER, Eng., Oct. 14.— In a political speech of supreme importance, in which he claimed that British policy in the Near East prevented another world war, Premier Lloyd George intimated today he is prepared to resign from the premiership.

The Premier made the startling revelation that 2,000,000 Greeks and Armenians have been slaughtered by the Turks since 1914. He scored the "old diplomacy" which he charged brought about the most disastrous war in the world's history.

The Premier was in fine speechmaking form and in fine fettle. He smiled at times as he made some telling point.

While Lloyd George did not make a definite statement on retirement, it is believed his speech indicates he will resign shortly, turning over the premiership to the conservatives, hoping he may be called again to office.

WANTS FAIR PLAY.
(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Oct. 14.—England's political crisis approached a climax today with all attention centered on Manchester, awaiting Lloyd George's announcement of his intentions. Specifically it is merely a speech before the Manchester Reform Club with guests limited to three hundred, but actually it will be addressed to the entire nation. In impromptu talks on his way to Manchester, the premier said: "I am going straight to the British public with an appeal for fair play."

SIX GALLONS TAKEN IN RAID ON STILL

Deputies Turner, Wright, Wiley and Sharpe caught another still Friday on Gotaco Creek near the Sharpe ford. The raid netted about six gallons of liquor. It was of 60 gallons capacity and bore evidences of having been operated for some time. There were 10 barrels of beer in process of fermenting, giving further evidence that the business was in a flourishing condition. This was destroyed by the raiders. No arrests were made.

Well beaten paths toward the still from several directions bore evidence that its whereabouts were well known to those who cared to patronize it. It is stated that owing to the vigilance of the officers the price of white whisky has gone up from $1.25 to $2.50 per quart. The alleged violators of the prohibition laws were placed in the county jail Friday evening. While the officers were making a round of certain streets they observed a negro man and a negro women conversing on the sidewalk.
The officers were attracted by their actions and made an investigation. A quart was taken from the pocket of the man and under the woman's shawl a gallon was extracted. Each maintained their innocence until the wet goods were actually brought to light.

'MURDER PLOT' TO SLAY RECTOR AND CHOIR SINGER NOW OFFICIAL'S THEORY

Evidence Found Which Convinces Detectives Of Existence Of Conspiracy

MRS. HALL'S ATTACK
ANSWERED BY PROBERS

Reported Widow and Other Members of the Family Will Be Quizzed

(By International News Service)

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 14.— Evidence has been found, it was learned today, which convinces the county and state authorities that a carefully planned plot resulted in the double murder of the Rev. Edward Hall, wealthy rector of the fashionable church and his beautiful choir leader, Mrs. James Mills, whose bodies were found on a deserted farm two miles from this city four weeks ago today.

The vitriolic attack of Mrs. Frances Hall, widow of the slain clergyman, through her attorney, on the conduct of the investigators was pronounced today by Somerset county officials as "an adroit move to forestall increased activities which threatened to leave to the arrest of a relative of one of the victims."

This attack was made in a letter by Attorney Timothy Pfeffer to Governor Edwards, requesting the appointment of a state prosecutor to supersede the Somerset and Middlesex county authorities.

It was reported Mrs. Hall and other members of her family would be summoned by Prosecutor Stricker of Middlesex county and Prosecutor Beekman, of Somerset county this afternoon or Sunday, to be questioned in the presence of James Mills, husband of the dead woman, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 16.

State police, it was learned today, have definitely established that the dual murder was committed between 9:30 and 10:15 o'clock on the night of September 14 in Middlesex county.
The bodies then were carried across the line into Somerset county, in accordance with a plan carefully worked out in advance.

The state authorities have been proceeding upon the theory that a woman was involved in the murder, as well as three or four men.

County officials, while refusing to say if their suspicions were crystallized against any one person, declared it was highly significant in their opinion that Mrs. Hall did not appeal to the Governor until detectives had seized her coat and scarf for chemical examination.

REV. SHERIDAN TO ADDRESS STRIKERS

Rev. J. M. Sheridan, pastor of St.
Ann's Catholic Church, will be the chief speaker at the Rail strikers' meeting Monday morning. The speaking is expected to begin soon after the assembly at 9 o'clock, in order to allow Father Sheridan to meet other engagements.

He has been away from the Twin Cities and this country for over four months on a visit to relatives in Ireland. Saturday's meeting of the strikers was closed a few minutes before 10 o'clock in order to allow opportunity to attend the funeral of Dr. M. W. Murray.

A short address by S. E. Roper on his experience at Judge Grubb's court at Huntsville, featured Saturday's meeting. It was closed with prayer by Rev. R. W. Stuckey.

Black Cat Breaks Up Rooster Fight

A black cat broke up a chicken fight, Friday, that was in progress at the home of Mrs. Albert Dunnivant, according to Roy Newsome, a brother of Mrs. Dun-nivant.

A white leghorn rooster and a speckled barn yard male fowl were merrily fighting away the morning of the 13th when down from the yard fence jumped a black cat and rushed between the combatants.

More than once the cat would disturb the fighters, and would sit as if umpiring, until finally as the white rooster was about to best his opponent, Tabby deliberately raised his right paw and struck the white rooster a resounding blow, so to speak, full in the face.

This angered the winning chicken and he left his erstwhile enemy to attack the black cat.
Result, the cat sought the fence in great haste. Moral: Blessed are the peace makers, but theirs is a dangerous occupation.

PRESIDENT HARDING DELAYS DRY ORDER FOR FOREIGN SHIPS

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—President Harding again today postponed the drastic liquor regulations as they affect foreign vessels. Announcement was made at the white house that the President signed an order extending until Oct. 21, the date under which foreign vessels may freely enter and leave American territorial waters with their liquor stores unmolested by government agents.

The President's extension of the time of operation of the Daugherty opinion will allow most ocean liners leaving European ports not later than Oct. 21, to have full liquor cargoes aboard to make American ports and complete their return voyage with whatever surplus liquors which may be aboard, without interference by American customs or enforcement officers.

U. S. SENATORS TO BE CHOSEN IN 33 STATES ON NOV. 7

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—In 33 states United States senators will be chosen on Nov. 7. The Democrats hope to win in a number of them and thereby reduce materially the Republican majority in the Senate, although the Republicans are equally confident that they will be able to capture several seats now held by Democrats and retain their control of the upper chamber of Congress by a substantial margin.

The so-called Progressives hope for addition to the little group of Republican Senators led by Borah, of Idaho, and LaFollette, of Wisconsin, which will strengthen them as a "fighting unit" and weaken the ranks of the Old Guard.

The Democrats have two women candidates for the Senate—one in Wisconsin and the other in Minnesota but neither is considered likely to win.

With the Maine Senatorial election already settled by the victory of the Republican Senator Hale, the death of Senator "Tom" Watson, of Georgia, unexpectedly provided another Senatorial seat to be filled, with a renewal of the factional strife among the Democrats of the State.

The nominees of the two leading parties for the Senate in each of the States where nominations have been made or where the candidates have been informally but definitely selected, with their home addresses, are as follows:

Arizona—Henry F. Ashurst, Prescott and James H. McClintock, Phoenix.

California—William J. Pearson, Los Angeles, and Hiram Johnson, San Francisco.

Connecticut—Thomas J. Spellacy, of Hartford and George P. McLean, of Simsbury.

Delaware—Thomas F. Bayard, of

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FOR'S BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.

THE TEACHER.

Many no doubt estimate too lightly the great place the conscientious school teacher occupies in the great work of character building, as day after day they stand before the classes of children, and impart to them the things sought to be learned in the institutions the country over. During the school terms, millions of children are as plastic clay in the hands of the potter, and in this instance the school teacher is the potter or sculptor, and unconsciously reflect their very beings and photograph them upon the minds and hearts of those who are in the formative period of their lives.

The position of the teacher is a most responsible place, and the work can be observed from day to day as the mind of the young unfold to receive the instruction imparted to them. Parent and teacher are in a great sense co-workers in the great business of rightly imparting to the children of a great country that which will last them through all the days of their life. With all the pains taken to train the young idea aright, some will go far amiss, but the rank and file while in the tender years of school age, reflect back much of that which was imparted to them, and also the manner in which it was imparted. In a world where there is so much levity, there should be some definite periods of seriousness. Each is essential to the other, and a preponderance of either is harmful to the young growing minds.

Blood will tell; a queen bee has been shipped from Dakota to spend the winter in Montgomery county. Her value is $300.00, a Montgomery county apiary having a half interest in her. Bee culture is becoming quite an industry in Alabama, especially the central and southern part of the state. Fine country honey, made by the bees of Morgan county is finding its way to market, bringing 15c per pound in the comb. Near the mountain sections in southern Morgan, there are many who keep a few stands of bees, among them Dr. W. S. Bean, who has given considerable attention and study to this little industrious worker. He annually sells considerable quantities of honey, and the quality is always fine.

A TRAIN OF THOUGHTS FOR SABBATH AND OTHER DAYS

By J. E. Blair

"Malcolm" was a gift horse, so we must not look into his mouth. But if we should his teeth would have shown he was in the prime of life at the time of our story, during civil war days 60 years ago. According to Rev. A. L. Davis, a Novemgenarian, who is living with his son-in-law, Rev. Dr. W. G. Henry of Birmingham. Malcolm was once the property of the aged minister. The horse was a blood bay with large kindly eyes and on his arched neck was a black flowing mane. His tail was raised in a graceful curve as he would trot off to the buggy on Sunday morning bearing Rev. Davis to his preaching appointments. But the hell of war came. So Malcolm with other neighbor horses was driven far back into the tall timber to hide them from the invading yankee army. Despite precaution the yankees sought out the hidden animals, and drove them away. But the command of General N. B. Forrest came, and his soldiers recaptured the horses including the gallant Malcolm. An unknown soldier who lived in the Tennessee Valley of Northern Alabama, was commissioned by Forrest to return Malcolm to Rev. Davis at Athens, Ala., Accordingly one fine day in the fall of the year, according to Rev. Davis, who recently visited relatives and friends near Albany and Decatur, the soldier in question appeared and told his owner that Malcolm was no longer a prisoner of war, but the property once more of his loyal confederate master. "Two motives struggled for control" declared the preacher, who on Christmas eve will turn into his 91st year. "I loved my horse and besides he had cost me $250.00 in gold. But I saw the need of the soldier boy. I know he would have to go on foot to his command if I kept the horse, and besides there was people's cause at stake, so in a burst of patriotism, I gave Malcolm to the soldier, with God's blessing". This story has never been published before. It was told only to let the reader catch the glimpse of a "suncrowned" man in action. Example is better than precept: "Go thou and do likewise".

Morgan County High School Wins 51 to 0 Victory From Decatur Squad

When good big teams meet good little teams, the former have a habit of winning. The rule held good Friday afternoon at "Y" Park when Morgan County high smashed its way to a 51 to 0 victory over Decatur.

After an inauspicious start for Decatur, Hartselle scoring 39 points in the first half, the game became something of a real battle in the last half and at times Decatur outrushed their heavier opponents.

Decatur appeared stunned by the sheer weight and reputation of the Morgan offensive in the first quarter and Hartselle scored three touchdowns in the initial period. As in previous games, Decatur fumbles proved costly yesterday.

Picking out the local stars is rather a difficult task. At times the Gold and Black machine did not put out a high grade of football performance and at others it tore through the Hartselle squad for long gains on the offensive and stopped the Hartselle charges well on the defensive. Price, with two long end runs to his credit, as well as a good defensive game, probably deserves the niche reserved for the famous. Wilkinson again gave an excellent account of himself, being closely followed by Phinizy, Lewis and Harris.

The entire Hartselle backfield distinguished itself.

The Line Up

DECATUR	HARTSELLE
Bates	re Garrison
Humphrey	rt Bream
Harris	rg Chenault
Morrow	c Stephens
Holland	ig Ratliff
Lewis	lt Thompson
Gunn	le Jones
Phinizy	q Ellison
Price	rb Hartselle
Himes	jhb Nelson
Wilkinson	fb Tomlinson

Referee—Morrow.

Umpire—Bateson.

First Quarter.

Wilkinson's initial kick was called back. Ellison returned his second 15 yards. Steady gains were made by Hartselle to Decatur's 10-yard line. Three bucks carried it over. An attempted pass for the extra point failed. Hartselle 6, Decatur 0.

Hartselle kicked to Price who returned 15. Decatur fumbled and Hartselle recovered on Decatur's 25 yard line. Tomlinson made 15 yards around left end, Phinizy making a nice tackle. Hartselle went for the touchdown. Tomlinson bucked the extra point. Hartselle 13, Decatur 0.

Decatur kicked to Hartselle. Tomlinson stepped around right end for 25 yards on a pass from Ellison to Hartselle which was good for another touchdown. Another pass by the same combination gave the visitors the extra point. Hartselle 20, Decatur 0.

Decatur was forced to punt after failing to gain from the kick off and it was Hartselle's ball on the 30-yard line at the end of the quarter.

Second Quarter.

Tomlinson bucked it over on the first play, but a pass failed for the extra point. Hartselle 26, Decatur 0.

Decatur kicked to Hartselle and another procession was started down the field, Ellison carrying it over. Tomlinson bucked for the extra point. Hartselle 33, Decatur 0.

Hartselle kicked to Decatur and Price and Wilkinson, in two plays, made eight yards, but a fumble cost them the ball. Ellison passed to Hartselle for another touchdown. A pass for the point failed. Hartselle 39, Decatur 0. Decatur kicked to Hartselle as the half ended.

Third Quarter.

Substitutions — Hartselle: Winton for Chenault; Chenault for Stevenson, Johnson for Garrison; Phillips for Jones; Boatwright for Ratliff.

Decatur fumbled the kickoff and Hartselle recovered. Gunn to Hartselle for a two yard loss and when two passes failed Hartselle punted to Decatur's 10-yard line. Wilkinson returned the kick and Ellison ran through right end for a touchdown. A pass failed. Hartselle 45, Decatur 0.

Decatur kicked. Hartselle was penalized 5 yards for offside and Hartselle punted to Price. Price tore around left end for 20 yards. A pass from Phinizy to Gunn was good for 20 more. From the 25-yard line Phinizy tried a drop kick which fell short by three feet.

Fourth Quarter.

It was Hartselle's ball on her own 20-yard line. Hartselle punted to Price. A pass was intercepted by Burleson. A pass to Ellison was good for another touchdown. Hartselle 51, Decatur 0.

On the kick off Ellison made a beautiful run, almost getting away, but was blocked by his own man near midfield. Decatur held and the ball went over. Price made 18 yards around end, but another pass was intercepted. Conley went in for Holland. Hartselle made short gains and time was called.

You $2000.00 Win

Costs You Nothing to Try - So Solve This Puzzle

How Many Words Can You Find in This Picture Commencing With the Letter "F"?

For example, you will notice "Fire," "Fiddle," "Forthright," etc. Are you able to find 20 words commencing with the letter "F"? The picture is very clear; there can be no mistakes. You will find it very interesting to look for these words, and may win the big prize. Anybody can try - costs nothing. Why should you not be the winner of the $2000.00?

YOU SHOULD WIN

The person having the largest list of words beginning with the letter "F" will get the First Prize. You surely have a real chance of winning at least one of the prizes offered - there are fifteen of them. Why not try for the big prize and win $2000.00. Somebody will win it - your chances are as good as anybody's.

Just think what you could do with the money. $2000.00 could buy an automobile and leave enough balance to make a payment on a cozy home. Perhaps you have in mind just the thing you would like to do if you received a check for $2000.00. Certainly you owe it to yourself to try to solve this puzzle. You will find the trying very easy and pleasant.

The Way to Win One of the Twenty Prizes
You do not have to spend a penny to get into this contest. It is not necessary for you to order any Yeastolax. If your list is adjudged to be one of the twenty best you will receive one of the cash prizes. Without your order for Yeastolax, if your list of words commencing with the letter "F" is the largest you receive the first prize of $20.00. If the judges award you the second prize, without your order for Yeastolax, you will get a check for $5.00 and so on down the line as shown in this announcement.

Win the Big Prize - $2000.00

If you choose you can win a great deal more than the Class A prizes. All that is necessary for you to qualify your list for the BIGGER PRIZES is to send in an order for one or more packages of Yeastolax. Look over carefully the schedule of prizes as classified in this announcement. You will find that if you send in $1.00 for one package of Yeastolax and the judges award you first prize you will get $20.00. If you send in $2.00 for two packages of Yeastolax and your list is adjudged first prize you will get a check for $40.00; and so on up. If you send in $5.00 for five packages of Yeastolax and the judges award you the first prize, you will receive the Big Prize of $2000.00. Should your list be judged as the second best you would receive twenty prizes offered, as shown. All the opportunity one could desire. Go in to win the best prize.

$700.00 Extra Award for Promptness

Dec 15th, 1932 is the last day for receiving your solution to this puzzle qualifying you to win one of the prizes. But, note this: For every day before that date that your order for Yeastolax is received an extra prize of $10.00 for each and every day will be added to any first prize won. If you send in your order today you will get a receipt for the money then you can send in your solution any time before Dec. 15th and your list will be qualified for any of the prizes. We will award an extra $700.00 in this manner. You should try your very best to earn this additional award. It will cost you little additional effort. In case of the way will award duplicate amounts of $700.00 to each contest winner of $5000.00 Genuine Russian Rubles, whether or not you enter this contest.

Go after the Big Prize - don't delay - start right away - get into the contest. How many words can you find with the letter "F"? Great amusement - great opportunity. $2000.00 is awaiting your call. Now is the time to act.

Two Women Tell How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stopped Their Suffering

Iron Mountain, Mich.—"I had terrible pains every month and at times had to go to bed on account of them. I saw your advertisement and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with very good results. I can work all day long now as my sick time. You may use these facts as a testimonial and I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends."—Mrs. A. H. Garland, 218 E. Brown St., Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Xenia, Ohio.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of my abdomen that I could not lie quietly in bed. I suffered for about five years that way and I was not regular either. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women, so I decided to try it. It surely has helped me a lot, as I have no pains now and am regular and feeling fine."—Mrs. MARY DALE, Route 7, Xenia, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women's ailments. It is especially adapted to relieve women. If you suffer as did Mrs. Garland or Mrs. Dale, you should give this well-known medicine a thorough trial.
